As part of creating a unique learning experience of military history, the WKCTC Study Abroad Program is offering a World War II trip to England, France and Germany in May 2014. The trip is open to WKCTC students, faculty and staff and members of the community. Travelers can visit London, Paris, Versailles, Portsmouth, Normandy, Berlin, Munich, Bastogne, and Salzburg.

Prior to the trip, an introductory history course will be taught in the spring 2014 semester. The course taught by Berry Craig, retired WKCTC history professor and author, will emphasize the European Theater of operations and examine the military, political, social and economic impact of the war on Europe. The course will be offered online and can be taken for credit or audited.

Wickliffe Mounds Open House Sept. 28

Dear Friends,
On Saturday September 28th we are having an Open House at Wickliffe Mounds as a free admission day, to celebrate one of Kentucky's important archaeological resources and to generate interest in forming a Friends group for the site.

Please stop by if you are in the area that day to visit, say hello, have some refreshments, and hopefully list your name as interested in the Friends group.

Once we have compiled a list of interested Friends, we will have a formal meeting in October with a Kentucky State Parks coordinator from Frankfort as a guest speaker to talk about the process for creating a Parks Friends group for Wickliffe Mounds.

If you are unable to stop by Sept. 28th, but are interested in a Friends group, please let me know and I'll add you to our list.

I hope you will want to help us advocate for the protection and future enhancement of Wickliffe Mounds State Historic Site.

*Thank you!
Cathy Hildebrand,
Park Manager*
